A message from the headteacher

What an amazing time we have had in school this week for the school 110th birthday. Parents, pupils and staff, past and present, have participated in the whole event with huge enthusiasm! Cockton Hill school has always been the hub of the community it serves and, with your support, long may that continue.

Generations of families have been taught here and it was wonderful to speak to many of the 500 visitors on Wednesday. Reminiscing fondly about such an important and usually happy time in their lives- looking through photographs and chatting to old friends. In one particular family, 4 generations all attended the school and were here with us to celebrate the event – marvellous.

Every member of staff here now are very proud to say we work in such a caring, happy and inspiring school, that so many people hold dear in the hearts.

Thank you all very much indeed for making the 110th birthday event such a success.
