

18th March 2022 – Weekly Newsletter

Playground

Recently, we have relaxed bubbles so that the children from different year groups are allowed to mix outside. It has been wonderful to see our older children support and play with some of our smallest children in the playground. Over the next few months, we are looking to develop the playground provision further. As part of this, we are looking for any scaffolding boards that anyone may have. Any donations would be gratefully received.

Litter

It has come to our attention that the area just outside the school gates is often covered in litter. In school, we promote care for the environment and care for our local area/ community. The children were sad to see such a mess and some helped to clean it up with litter pickers. I would politely ask that parents make sure that they don't discard litter on the floor and take it to the nearest bin. It is all of our responsibility to care for the school and the area around it.

Bedtime Readers Club

As part of our commitment to giving every child a love of reading, we are looking to start a story/ reading club next half term for our Reception children. This club will explore a quality story in great detail including some exciting activities around the book. At the end of the club, children will be able to take the book home with them to enjoy it with their families. We hope to have an element of parental involvement too. Details to follow.

Congratulations to this week's achievers:
