

3rd February 2023 – Weekly Newsletter

Next Week

Next week looks to be the busiest week of the term so far. We will be doing a whole week of activities for mental health week including mindfulness activities, yoga, exercise and activities with a nature theme. This finishes on Friday with a "Dress to Impress" day. On this day pupils are allowed to come to school in anything that shows their personality. They can do their hair differently, wear their favourite clothes and celebrate how unique we all are!

On Tuesday we all have an "Escape room" day for pupils in Reception, Year 1 and Year 2. This will be a series of puzzles relating to exercise and movement. I'm really excited to see what the day brings. Pupils may come to school wearing their PE kit.

On Wednesday we will have our Safer Internet Day. The official day is Tuesday, but we have too much to fit in. The pupils will be completing a number of activities relating to staying safe online including making posters, watching some videos and some drama activities.

I'm exhausted just writing about next week, but the children are going to have some wonderful experiences!

Learning Walk

This week as part of our in school monitoring I had the pleasure of completing a learning walk with Mrs Harnaman around school. I can't tell you how wonderful it was to see the children immersed in their learning. The behaviour across school was superb with all children engaged in their activities. We saw children working together, children showing resilience and children excited and stimulated to learn something new. Every child had a big smile on their face. Well done everyone!

After School Clubs

It is coming to the time in the term where we are thinking about after-school clubs for the next half term. We are going to have a "Fun to be kind" club for Year 2, a multi-skills club for Year 1 and a story club for Reception. The letters for these clubs will be going out very soon, so please keep checking your child's bag. We have limited places on all clubs, but we do prioritise children that missed out during the previous half term. This is to make it as fair as possible.
