

17th November 2023 – Weekly Newsletter

Open Day Week

Thank you to all the parents that attended our open days this week. Staff commented on what a lovely time they had talking to parents about progress as well as the lovely characters we have in school.

Panto

We are all very excited for our pantomime visit next Friday. Please remember that we will most likely be late back to school due to the length of the show, but we will update you via text on the day. We also politely ask that parents move onto the school playground for pickup, so that when we return the ramp is clear for children and staff to walk down.

Stamps

Willington Methodist church are collecting used stamps for Parkinson's UK. If you have any used stamps you can drop them into school and we will pass them on. Thank you.

Congratulations to this week's achievers:
