

26th April 2024 – Weekly Newsletter

Neon Glow Day

We are having a Glow Day on Friday 3rd May. Pupils may come to school dressed in neon or white clothing which really glows under our new UV lights! We look forward to lots of dancing, movement and fun. I really hope that the children are as excited about this as the staff.

NSPCC Workshop

This week in school we have delivered the "Speak out, Stay safe" assembly to children in school delivering an important message about who to talk to when they have worries or concerns. We look forward to having the NSPCC deliver a workshop on the same topic for our Year 2 children in a couple of weeks. Further information and support from the NSPCC for parents can be accessed at www.nspcc.org.uk/parents.

Attendance Reminder

I just wanted to politely remind all parents that it is their responsibility to inform us of their child's absence due to illness. This should happen each day a child is ill, including consecutive days. Parents should inform us of any absence through our usual number or send a message through the arbor app.
